The background of the poster is a large-scale artwork by Carmen Cologan titled 'Bosque de islarios'. It features a dense forest of stylized trees with vibrant, multi-colored leaves in shades of yellow, orange, red, blue, and green. The trunks of the trees are depicted as smooth, tapered, and colored in various hues like blue, yellow, green, and pink. The overall composition is layered, with some elements appearing more prominent than others, creating a sense of depth and a dreamlike atmosphere.
